

Don't Miss the Party: A Prescription for Bitterness Luke 15:25-32

Small Group Questions

1. Reread Luke 15:25-32. What stands out to you? What is challenging to you?

2. Why is bitterness so self destructive? How have you seen this in your life or in the life of others?

"Bitterness will make you do crazy things. Black and cold bitterness denies easy escape"

Don't Miss the Party: A Prescription for Bitterness Luke 15:25-32

3. What have you complained to God about because He did something for someone else and not you? How did you feel in that moment? How were you able to move on?

“You can choose to put away your hurt. You can choose to go to the party or stay on the porch.”

4. How do you define jealousy? How do you combat it? How can it become a detriment in your life?

