

Difficult Aspect of Love:
Love Let's It Go! (Part 1)
I Corinthians 13:5

Small Group Questions

1. Reread I Corinthians 13. What stands out to you? What is challenging to you?

2. There are four types of draining people: Difficult, Demanding, Disappointing, and Destructive. Which is most draining for you and why?

“Life is all about learning to love. You don't come into the world loving folks. We have to learn. One of the ways God builds our love is he tests it. He puts us around unlovely people.”

VDP: Very Draining People

Difficult Aspect of Love:
Love Let's It Go! (Part 1)
I Corinthians 13:5

3. Make a list of your top 5 things or behaviors that irritate you.

“When you love somebody, you say: I'm not going to be rude. I'm not going to demand my own way. I won't be irritable.”

4. What makes responding in love to these types of people difficult? Have you ever been guilty of being a draining person?

