

Difficult Aspect of Love:
Love Let's It Go! (Part 1)
I Corinthians 13:5

Small Group Questions

1. Reread I Corinthians 13. What stands out to you? What is challenging to you?

2. There are four types of draining people: Difficult, Demanding, Disappointing, and Destructive. When have you found yourself being one of these types of people?

“Everyone will at some point disappoint you. No one is perfect.”

VDP: Very Draining People

Difficult Aspect of Love:
Love Let's It Go! (Part 1)
I Corinthians 13:5

3. How do you respond when someone disappoints you? How do you feel and how do you react?

“You can not be selective in your forgiveness. You must forgive whatever grievance you may have again someone else”

4. How do you confront people in love? How ca you do this gently?

Difficult Aspect of Love:
Love Let's It Go! (Part 1)
I Corinthians 13:5

5. How do you make judgements without becoming judgmental? Whats the difference? how can you maintain the balance?

6. How do you love people who intentionally hurt you? When people hurt you what is your initial reaction?

7. What offense are you unwilling to let go? Since holding on to it damages you, how can you take steps to let it go?

“You don’t repeat it. You need to delete it. Love let’s it go!”